

HOW MONTANA DEMOCRATS CAN PARTICIPATE IN THE DELEGATE SELECTION PROCESS

(For full rules and regulations please reference the Montana Delegate Selection Plan, found at www.montanademocrats.org)

The Montana Democratic Party is committed to encouraging full participation by all Democrats including Native Americans, African Americans, Hispanics, Asian Americans and Pacific Islanders, women, members of the Lesbian, Gay, Bisexual and Transgender (LGBT) Community, people with disabilities and youth.

Vote in the Montana Presidential Primary

Montana Democrats will elect their candidate for President in an open ballot primary on Tuesday, June 2, 2020. These election results are then tallied and utilized for the determination of the delegate distribution between Democratic Presidential candidates and the voting weights of County delegates at the 2020 Montana Delegate Selection Convention.

County Democratic Conventions

County Conventions will be called by County Democratic Central Committees to select the Democratic Delegates to represent that county at the Montana Delegate Selection Convention. County Conventions will be held on Wednesday or Thursday, June 3rd or 4th, 2020 at a time and location to be announced by the County Chair and made available to the public.

Any registered voter having publicly declared to be a Democrat from the county may participate in the county convention. The County Central Committee Chair will have Democratic Affirmation Forms to fill out prior to the start of the County Convention. No Democrat can participate in more than one county convention.

Montana Delegate Selection Convention

The Montana Delegate Selection Convention will be held to choose the Montana Delegates who will attend the 2020 Democratic National Convention in Milwaukee, Wisc.

The Montana Delegate Selection Convention will be held Saturday, June 6, 2020, virtually. County Delegates elected during County Delegate Conventions will participate in the State Convention to vote for Montana's Delegates. For more information about the location, agenda and other details of the Montana Convention, please see our website at www.montanademocrats.org.

Montana Delegates to the 2020 Democratic National Convention

Montana Democrats wishing to be a Montana Delegate to the 2020 Democratic National Convention must file the Statement of Candidacy form, attend the Montana Delegate Selection Convention and be elected at the Montana Delegate Selection Convention to be held Saturday, June 6, 2020. Democrats may run as a District-Level Delegate, a Pledged Party Leader and Elected Official Delegate, an At-Large Delegate and/or an At-Large Alternate Delegate, and a Standing Committee Member, based on the qualifications in the Montana Delegate Selection Plan. Delegates are responsible for their own travel costs associated with traveling to and attending the National Convention.

Additional questions or need more information? Get in touch with the Montana Democratic Party at (406) 442-9520 or check out our website at www.montanademocrats.org. For full rules and regulations please reference the Montana Delegate Selection Plan, found at www.montanademocrats.org

Paid for by the Montana Democratic Party,
Donavon Hawk; Treasurer
PO Box 802, Helena, MT 59624